PRESS RELEASE

04-19-2012

Sgt. Donald Durst reported that on April 19th, 2012 at 0044 Hrs. he and Lt. Todd MenMuir responded to a Webb Rd. address in Perry Township. A call had been received from the resident there stating that he had observed on exterior security cameras a male enter onto his property and walk up the driveway. The male was further observed to attempt to gain entry into a vehicle which was parked next to a garage, approximately 50 yards up the driveway from the roadway. The vehicle was locked, and nothing was taken.

Units arrived in the area, and a male with similar clothing and description was detained on Webb Rd. in front of the callers residence. The male was identified as James R. Chandler age 28 of Perry Twp. Based on the video evidence, and a statement obtained from Mr. Chandler he was arrested, booked into the Lake County Jail, on one (1) count of Criminal Trespass.
